Press release

EMBRACE THE JOYS OF THE FESTIVE SEASON AT THE DOLDER GRAND

The art of celebration will be on vivid display at The Dolder Grand as the legendary 5-star Swiss hotel rings in the festive season with immersive holiday-themed contemporary art and spirited packages gift wrapped for guests to enjoy onsite or at home. Set high on a hilltop surrounded by natural greenery not far from downtown Zurich, The Dolder Grand has mastered the art of celebrating the holidays in style since its establishment in 1899. 2024 marks the grand dame's 125th anniversary, with a calendar full of nostalgic and forward-looking events.

Ahead of the hotel's 125th celebration in 2024, guests are in for a festive season treat.

- Decorative Delights: The holiday festivities begin as soon as guests step into the lobby brightened with seasonal trimmings from garlands draped on grand staircases and fireplaces, to a beautifully decorated 16-foot fir tree situated at the center of the property. With the snow-dusted Alps and coniferous forests visible at every turn, guests will feel like they are in a living set of The Nutcracker – with all the joy and magic The Dolder Grand encompasses.
- Advent Art: The Canvas Bar & Lounge will also frame striking artwork tied to the giving spirit and religious roots of the season, as well as to The Dolder Grand's ongoing commitment to contemporary arts. Dear Santa: Letters from children in need is an interactive spectacle of light created by Finnish master Jani Leinonen to bring hope to the hearts of guests by telling the stories of artists and writers who have been detained for their thoughts around the world, who ask Father Christmas for a better future. Leinonen, whose work is featured at the hotel, fashioned the art piece as a brilliant advent calendar of illuminated stained-glass gift boxes that will grow from December 1 through Christmas Eve. Leading up to Christmas Eve, each day will reveal a new spectacle of light emphasizing the message that creativity and hope cannot be contained.
- Festive Packages: Celebrate the most wonderful time of the year with the Christmas at The Restaurant package featuring a 2-night hotel stay, 6-course dinner by Culinary Director Heiko Nieder at the hotel's signature Michelin-starred dining experience, sumptuous daily breakfast, as well as unlimited access to the 4,000 sq. m.
